Please share your experience at WCBCS and the impact it has made in your life.

Having felt a calling and desiring not to lead anyone astray I began asking the pastoral staff from my church their recommendations concerning online training in ministry. Working a job which ranged from 60 to 80 hours per week and included travel to other cities the overwhelming suggestion was West Coast Bible College and Seminary.

I investigated the process, prayed, and applied. The application process was easy and the classes have been beyond my expectations. I feared that given my stage in life (old) I would have difficulty with the technology and distant learning. I was overjoyed to find the experience was easier than I thought.

WCBCS has introduced me to a wealth of books and thought which has whet my appetite for knowledge and prepared me for witnessing to others with confidence. The class structure and study materials are well researched and contemporary. The ability to work from either at home or from a motel room work perfect for my application. The Daily Family Devotionals have become a part of my morning routine. I will be completing a degree in missionary ministry within the next few months and look forward to inspiring others to do likewise. When leading a men's group populated with guys from all walks of life, WCBCS has given me the tools to be able to give an account for my faith which will connect with the entire audience.

Whether I pursue employment in full time ministry or rather offer myself as a volunteer to spread the gospel the training received from WCBCS has been a tremendous asset. If asked by someone what steps I could recommend when considering answering God's calling to ministry I would not hesitate to get them onboard with West Coast Bible College and Seminary.
